"YOU HAVE CREATED A REAL LIFE FAIRY TALE EXPERIENCE" - GREG & ANTHONY

celebrate at our estate: stress free & magical!

our offer

We've put together a one of a kind, all-inclusive experience for the very purpose of making your day stress free and affordable, yet incredibly beautiful in every way.

Your wedding party gets ready in two separate rooms at the Captain's House, the residence at our estate, up to two hours before your wedding guests arrive.

Your guests are welcomed by our friendly and helpful staff, and they'll enjoy welcome refreshments at our pavilion on Spring Hill, with lush mountain views.

When you are ready, and your guests have been guided into the forest, we'll drive you up the mountain for a ceremony in our enchanted pine grove (aka our Natural Cathedral).

Afterwards, make photos (formals, intimate photos of just the two of you, whatever you want), stroll down our rolling meadow, and celebrate with a toast and your first dance under the twinkling lights of our gorgeous carriage barn. There will be drinks, passed hors d'oeuvres and a Catskills market table with bites, and our staff will make everything look and sound beautiful.

Optionally and at an additional charge, tag on an extra hour to the cocktail and hors d'oeuvres reception, to include some extended food options (a grilling or sliders station, or a pasta or savory crepe station for example), and satisfy any sweet cravings, with the option of a small wedding cake, and coffee table and cookie bars, eliminating the need for a consecutive dinner elsewhere. It'll also offer you the option to add on some more toasts, tributes, or some serious dance time.

Established in 1851

by a Mississippi riverboat captain, The Roxbury Barn & Estate's 42-acre property includes a beautiful three-story carriage barn, lush perennial gardens and a series of ponds, a large roofed pavilion with spectacular mountain vista, and the dramatic pine grove, nicknamed our Natural Cathedral.

It's the perfect location for an intimate Catskills wedding.

personalized service

Before your arrival, we'll style the carriage barn, hill top pavilion, and ceremony site to your liking, adding the desirable number of chairs and tables, arrange for the music you prefer, add flowers, and a simple wedding bouquet and boutonniere that matches your style.

We'll also offer you our Lodging List, with over a 150 lodging options in our area of the Central Catskills.

No worries about stress, no long to-do lists involved. We'll coordinate the celebration, and you'll enjoy some of the best we have to offer, at a really affordable rate!

our approach

There are two compliments we receive quite frequently:

That the beauty of our property beats the imagery on our website;

And that the relaxed ease with which we handle events adds to its flawlessness.

Both compliments fill us with pride.

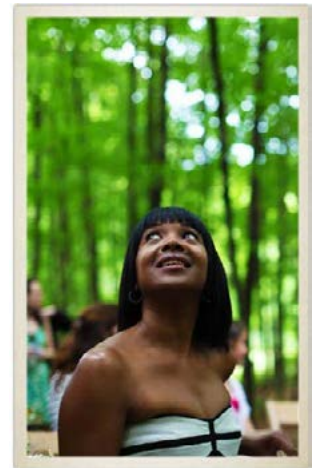

We'll never stop working on perfecting our place.

And we'll always strive for each celebration to be as harmonious and magical as possible.

booking & holding dates

In order to reserve the estate for your midweek wedding, we require that couples sign a rental agreement and pay a non-refundable deposit of $3000. We accept checks only. The remaining fee (the event fee minus the $3000 deposit) for your midweek wedding will be due one month before the event.

We do not accept bookings sight unseen, so we'd invite you over for a tour of our barn and grounds. Sorry, due to the high volume of inquiries, The Roxbury Barn & Estate is not able to hold dates until couples book their event.

availability

Unlike full day weekend weddings, Midweek Celebrations usually can be booked closer to the wedding date.
